

Participation In Planning

Procedures shall be maintained that ensure members of the school community including staff, parents/guardians, other agencies or personnel as appointed by the Superintendent or designee, and business and community representatives are given the opportunity to provide input into the planning process.

Consultants and other appropriate resource personnel from state and local agencies shall be integrated into the planning process in accordance with state law and where such consultation will benefit the planning process.

Assistance from colleges and universities, planning laboratories and private consulting firms shall be authorized when necessary to augment district staff resources.
